

Hope and Fulfilment AWARDS 2026

REWARDING & CELEBRATING
TALENT & INITIATIVE IN PRISON

Do you know someone in prison who has helped make life better for others? Someone who has inspired others through the work they have done to develop themselves?

If you do, then you can nominate them for an award and a prize! Anyone can nominate someone who is in prison by filling in the form overleaf and getting it endorsed by the governor/director.

Nominations open from 1 March – 22 May 2026. The Hope and Fulfilment Awards is a new national scheme, run by the Prison Reform Trust, designed to recognise, reward and celebrate the achievements, talent, and initiative of people in custody.

Funded by: Lady Edwina Grosvenor & The Wilmington Trust
